WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. — Secretary Colby has issued a statement asserting that there was "a plain misstatement of fact" in the recent address made by Elihu Root, dealing with the League of Nations covenant. "I fear that the only point in Root's mind was to serve his party," Colby's statement says. "Mr. Root is wrong. What he says is wrong. What he seeks to do is wrong." I hardly suspect Mr. Root knows this," Colby addressed his statement particularly to the question of whether or not the United States should

JAPANESE DENY THREAT CHARGED BY PROF. KUNO

That the life of Dr. S. Y. Kuno, member of the faculty of the University of California, has never been threatened and that the activities which he has attributed to the Japanese in this country are non-existent, is the statement made today by K. Kanazaki, general secretary of the Japanese Association of America.

The reply of the Japanese Association follows:

"Mr. Kuno's allegation on the duplicity on the part of Japanese in America was published in the Oakland Tribune in its issue of October 21, is not at all surprising to some of us who have known him with any degree of intimacy. At this moment we have been unable to secure a copy of the so-called report which was said to be submitted to President Barrows, but as far as his statement appeared in the TRIBUNE concerning the relation of America and Japan goes, we have long maintained a policy to be frank and sincere in our dealings with each other with facts and truth as the basis of our international relations, and in this respect we agree with Mr. Kuno.

"We found, however, his own statement concerning the Japanese conditions in this country and particularly in California is entirely misleading and far from the truth. In fact, the principle of which he violates himself in his statement.

PROOF DENIED.

"He is said to have charged 'members of his own people as sneaky' and 'falsifiers of their true conditions in this state.' It is very regrettable that he has made this sweeping statement without giving us any positive proof for the allegation. It is apparent that he has none to substantiate his misleading statement.

"As far as his statement in regard to the Japanese Association is concerned he falsified the fact and misrepresented the organization to the public. As it has been expressly stated in our Constitution that the Japanese Association has nothing to do with the Japanese community, either financially or otherwise. To quote my statement under oath made before the Congressional Sub-Committee on Immigration and Naturalization investigating the Japanese condition on the Pacific coast last July at San Francisco hearing:

"The general expenditures of the Association is met through the fifteen per cent assessment on the membership fee collected by the local affiliated associations, certificate fees, voluntary contributions from the people at large, and fees arising from legal advice and immigration aid. The annual budget is formulated and adopted by the delegate convention in January each year. The Japanese Association of America, thus is a self-perpetuating and independent body and has no official connection whatever, either political or financial, with the Imperial Government of Japan.

PURPOSE STATED.

"Its purpose and function is as stated explicitly in our constitution to look after the welfare of the Japanese. Because of the effort of our organization there have been few Japanese in almost any part of this country. This fact is known to Americans. Furthermore the association is performing important duties in assisting Americanization of the Japanese immigrants. But for this association it would be very difficult to carry out such program in the degree of rapidity we have so far attained.

"Mr. Kuno's charge that spies have been placed in practically every university in the country is so astounding that we are forced to doubt his mental sanity in making such an impossible charge as this public association with his allegation that Japanese Associations maintain a Japanese government in all places in the United States, governing as he is said to have claimed. The Japanese subjects in this country in the same manner as does the Imperial government at Tokyo. As has already been stated by quoting my statement before the Congressional Sub-Committee, the finances of the Association is met by the fees and general contributions of entirely voluntary nature and therefore the charge that this government within the government levies taxes on the Japanese residents in the state has no basis for its statement.

FIGURES DENIED.

"We should like to know upon what authority Mr. Kuno says that there are 100,000 Japanese in California. To our certain knowledge he has never gone into the country to investigate the matter. On the other hand, our Association has employed

State W. C. T. U. Demands Modestly Dressed Girls

RICHMOND, Oct. 23.—Resolutions urging a tightening of the prohibition laws, the strengthening of anti-gambling laws, denouncing moving pictures as a "powerful stimulus to crime," branding traveling carnivals as a "menace to the morals of young and old and calling upon school authorities to demand modest dressing by girl students, were adopted by the State W. C. T. U. at the close of its fortieth annual session here last night.

The present reviewing the various activities of the W. C. T. U. closed the convention. The selection of the next convention city was left in the hands of the State executive committee.

DELEGATES CHOSEN.

The following delegates to the national convention in San Francisco in 1921 were elected at the closing session:

District delegates—Mrs. Almyra Lolltick, Modesto; Mrs. Alice Whittington, Dinuba; Mrs. Mary E. Whitman, Campbell; Mrs. Nettie Turner, Ceres; Mrs. Elizabeth Musselman, Berkeley; Mrs. F. Q. Thomas, Merced; Mrs. H. M. Wright, Helena; Mrs. Clara Wilson, Richmond; Mrs. May E. Birch, Orland; Mrs. Louise J. Taft, Colusa.

The convention adopted also a resolution approving a resolution of Santa Cruz W. C. T. U. urging that all members of the union exert an effort to assist mothers of illegitimate children and to see that such children are properly reared.

The resolution referring to moving pictures said that the "moving pictures as presented had proved a powerful stimulus to crime, and that the need for more careful pictures was evident. The appointment of a national director of social morality was urged. This plan includes the gathering of data by a central committee of the women and pictures and the taking of suitable action by this committee.

Traveling carnivals were branded as a "menace to the morals of young and old, encouraging habits of extravagance and shiftlessness and as fostering a habit of gambling."

Another resolution was adopted thanking W. A. Potter of the Pacific Plumbing Exchange Company for the drinking fountain presented to the State W. C. T. U.

Another resolution thanked the Chamber of Commerce, the local W. C. T. U. the newspapers, the citizens of the city for courtesies.

A Dempsey has purchased the California restaurant from Henry Wells, Earl Light and Power Co. is the Bay Point Light and Power Co. is leaving Saturday for Scotia.

Many investigators to ascertain the number of Japanese now in California.

"While I am not entertaining any personal animosity toward Mr. Kuno, who is my fellow alumnus of our Alma Mater in which he now holds his position, my obligation to the organization and my sense of honesty and fair play with the facts and conditions of the Japanese as they are calls me to make this statement which will assist the public in understanding these various charges made by our countryman. No one has further if we state our attitude toward him in this community.

FRIENDLY RELATIONS.

"He seems to think that he has been ostracized by Japanese because of the views and opinions he has expressed on Japan and the Japanese, the opinions of which he evidently takes very seriously. But the fact is that none of us has ever attacked much importance to what he has said on public questions. No one has ostracized him, much less threatened him. Mr. Kuno's allegation that he is persecuted or pursued by his fellow countrymen because of his views on public questions exists only in his imagination since to our certain knowledge no one has ever bothered him, and because few have ever recognized his existence in this community life.

"As I have stated before it has been our established policy and emphasis that our attitude should be frank and sincere in maintaining our friendly relations between the two countries. At the same time we maintain that the effort of Japanese in this country in promoting the cordial relations between the two nations should be looked upon with the eyes of suspicion and narrow prejudice, but should approach it with the spirit of sympathy and cooperativeness. It is regretted that Mr. Kuno's knowledge of Japan is entirely antiquated because of his absence from his own country for last thirty years, and he is not in position to interpret properly the democratic movement of modern Japan."

"We should like to know upon what authority Mr. Kuno says that there are 100,000 Japanese in California. To our certain knowledge he has never gone into the country to investigate the matter. On the other hand, our Association has employed

DEATH LETTER MENACES LIFE OF U. S. AGENT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—A letter threatening his life if he fails to discontinue his vigorous investigation of an alleged whisky ring has been received by Arthur O. Kriete, chief deputy prohibition officer for Southern California. It became known today that the letter was received when he interfered, and we'll get you the same way," the letter said. "He tried to dictate, but you are more dangerous, as you are getting close to our game, so if you don't quit right now you will go the same way Handley did."

LETTER BEING PROBED.

The reference to Lorin A. Handley, former California prohibition officer, who was killed in an automobile accident at Los Angeles, recently, was being run down by federal detectives today.

The threat against Kriete, who was several days ago promoted to his present position, today was the chief development in the federal probe of liquor activities being made in this district.

Kriete today declared the case would be prosecuted vigorously.

"The letter does not annoy me, neither does it threaten," he said. "Our investigation will continue in the same fashion."

Federal operatives and post-office inspectors were searching for the writer of the letter.

MYSTERY WOMAN AIDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—The government was successful today in avoiding showing its hand in the bootlegging prosecutions.

When the cases of Harry Brodsky, Harry Alphonse and Douglas Newton were called before Commissioner Krull, United States District Attorney Silva again asked delay and it was granted over the protests of counsel for the defendants, who are charged with conspiracy to violate the prohibition law.

The grand jury was not in session today and will not convene until next Tuesday. It was reported at the federal building today that government agents are busily engaged in gathering evidence against a new figure in the "bootlegging" ring—a bigger one than any so far involved.

Federal agents were secretly regarding the new developments, but it was believed that evidence given earlier this week by a "mystery woman" had developed the latest case.

BEACH RESORT RAIDED.

Prohibition enforcement officers, armed with axes and sledge hammers, borrowed from the fire department, today battered in doors of a house at 131 Bay street, in the North Beach section, seized more than 1000 gallons of wine valued at approximately $700 and destroyed two large stills.

While the raid is not directly connected with the federal investigation into the whisky ring, it is a direct outgrowth of the investigation and is part of the intensive campaign to suppress illicit liquor dealing which already is making itself felt in this city.

It was persistently rumored in the federal building today that a fifth defendant who so far has not been mentioned in connection with the booze scandal is to be named in the draft of the indictments which will be submitted to the federal grand jury when it convenes Tuesday.

The fifth defendant, it is believed, confirmed it is generally given credence by those familiar with the situation. It is intimated that this fifth unidentified defendant will be shown to have been a prominent factor in the alleged activities of the whisky ring in the capacity of a go-between.

CLASS ADOPTION.

Class adoption ceremonies of the Royal Neighbors in Oakland last night were participated in by a large number of local officers and members of that lodge. The Richmond drill team introduced the supreme visitors at the meeting, and Richmond officers put on the four work.

The meeting was a joint affair of all the lodges in the Eastbay region, held at Pythian castle at Twelfth and Alameda, Oakland, and was presided over by Mrs. Lulu Genger, president of the bi-county association. The Richmond officers who assisted were Mrs. Irene Smith, Mrs. Dora Randall, Mrs. Nina Vickery.

RANK CONFERRED.

Twelve candidates received esquire rank at the meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night, and tickets to the big whisky party were given. Preparatory to making a big sale to assure the success of that event.

OFFICIALS VISIT GREAT WARSHIP.

VALLEJO, Oct. 23.—City officials and other representative men of the bay region, together with representatives of the press, were guests at Mare Island today.

The object of their trip, which was arranged by Captain C. W. Cole of the western navy recruiting division in conjunction with navy yard officials, was to inspect the great warship California, now nearing completion there.

It is the object of the state and the navy department to man this vessel with a crew of 5000 sailors and the visit of the party here was aimed to stimulate recruiting.

The delegation came to Mare Island this morning from San Francisco where the destroyer was provided by the navy yard. Following arrival at noon a luncheon was served in the navy yard cafe after which Captain E. H. Beach, commandant of the station, conducted the visitors aboard the new fighting vessel.

The return this afternoon was to be made on the ferry. The California 50 per cent done and preparations already in the making for taking the craft to the Hunters Point dock at San Francisco to be equipped with propellers and tested there. This should take place in December, it was believed.

Spanish Province Is Terrified by Quake.

GRANADA, Spain, Oct. 22.—An earthquake shock lasting ten minutes was felt Wednesday throughout the province. Damage was done in some villages, but whether there were any casualties is not known. Almost the entire population of the settlement left their homes.

PICKPOCKETS ROB THREE IN STREET

Herman Furman, 596 Thirty-eighth street, was among the heaviest losers charged to the series of pickpocket thefts which flourished in the city last night. As he was coming out of a theater he felt himself jostled in the crowd. Before he could get out of the crowd his purse containing $55 and negotiable paper worth several hundred dollars had been taken. He could not give a description of the thief.

A girl pickpocket, described as a "dreadful flirt," robbed George Frear, Eleventh and Clay streets, of his wallet containing a small sum of money and his watch and chain, he told the police. She escaped.

Steve Leuch was another pedestrian who felt victim of the pickpockets. His pocket was picked of his wallet and watch and chain.

House robberies included the home of Seragia Allesandria, 1116 Twenty-first street.

WOMEN SAY LEAVE DEAD IN FRANCE

The bodies of soldier dead on foreign soil will not be brought to this country for interment if the recommendation of the American Women's Overseas League, through the bay section, has weight with families of the men who fell in battle. The recently organized group of women who served abroad during the war, claims an eligible list of 1000 or more. Mrs. E. K. Sturgis of Oakland is president. The resolution which was adopted at the business meeting this week follows: "Inasmuch as many families are now facing the decision of whether or not to bring back from Europe the bodies of their soldier dead, and inasmuch as the opinion of overseas women on this question is asked: "Resolved, that the American Women's Overseas League declares itself in favor of leaving the bodies of the soldier dead on foreign soil. This recommendation is made with no lack of sympathy for the bereaved families, but in the earnest belief, based upon experience in hospitals and in talk with wounded men, that this best expresses the wish of the soldiers themselves.

"We also, from observations in hundreds of graveyards abroad and from universal expression of our allies toward our dead, declare that even the isolated American graves in foreign cemeteries are tended by the people in the neighborhood with the same reverential care accorded their own."

The American Women's Overseas League will participate in the Armistice Sunday services in Grace Cathedral.

Nervous Breakdown

"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly"—"My nerves are all on edge"—"I wish I were dead." How often have we heard these expressions or others quite as extravagant from some loved one who has been brought to this state by some female trouble which has slowly developed until the nerves can no longer stand up under it. No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition without giving that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Read the Letters of These Two Women.

North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."

ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North East, Md.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children, and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

Tribune Election Night Bulletin to Be Largest in the West Returns on Presidential Vote Will Break Speed Records

All TRIBUNE Branches to Be Supplied With a Quick Bulletin Service.

Three News Associations to Give Reports for Extras On Streets.

The Oakland TRIBUNE will be the only newspaper or other organization which will receive and distribute news of the great election night in Alameda county. In addition the TRIBUNE will receive full United Press and International News Service bulletins.

TRIBUNE extras will be the only one published in the great Eastbay carrying Associated Press news.

The 45-foot screen which will be installed on the San Pablo avenue facade of the Kahn building on the night of November 2 for the OAKLAND TRIBUNE's election returns will be the largest bulletin board ever used in the West.

The letters alone will be eight feet high. With each individual letter this huge size it will be easy to read the bulletin for blocks. One may stand at the corner of Thirteenth and Washington and see every word without straining. This point is two blocks from the screen.

The stereopticon will throw the letters across San Pablo avenue a distance of 250 feet. High-power electrical equipment is being prepared for this purpose, and will be installed in the law offices of J. Leonard Rose and Edward J. Silver across the street from Kahn's.

Special phones and telegraph instruments will be installed direct to the main bulletin point to avoid loss of time in getting the results out on the screen. A detail of men will handle the stuff hot off the wire and transfer the bulletins line by line to the slides. Getting the slides into the machine and the messages on the screen will be a matter of seconds.

This is but one phase of the TRIBUNE's elaborate preparation for the dispensing of election news to the people of the entire Eastbay district. Stereopticon service will be duplicated at the TRIBUNE's big branches in Berkeley and Alameda. In Berkeley the bulletins will be thrown on a large canvas over Bowman's, at Center and Shattuck, opposite the Berkeley branch of the Oakland Bank of Savings. In Alameda the returns will be shown at Park and Central, at the TRIBUNE branch office. All other TRIBUNE branches throughout the county will be served with returns.

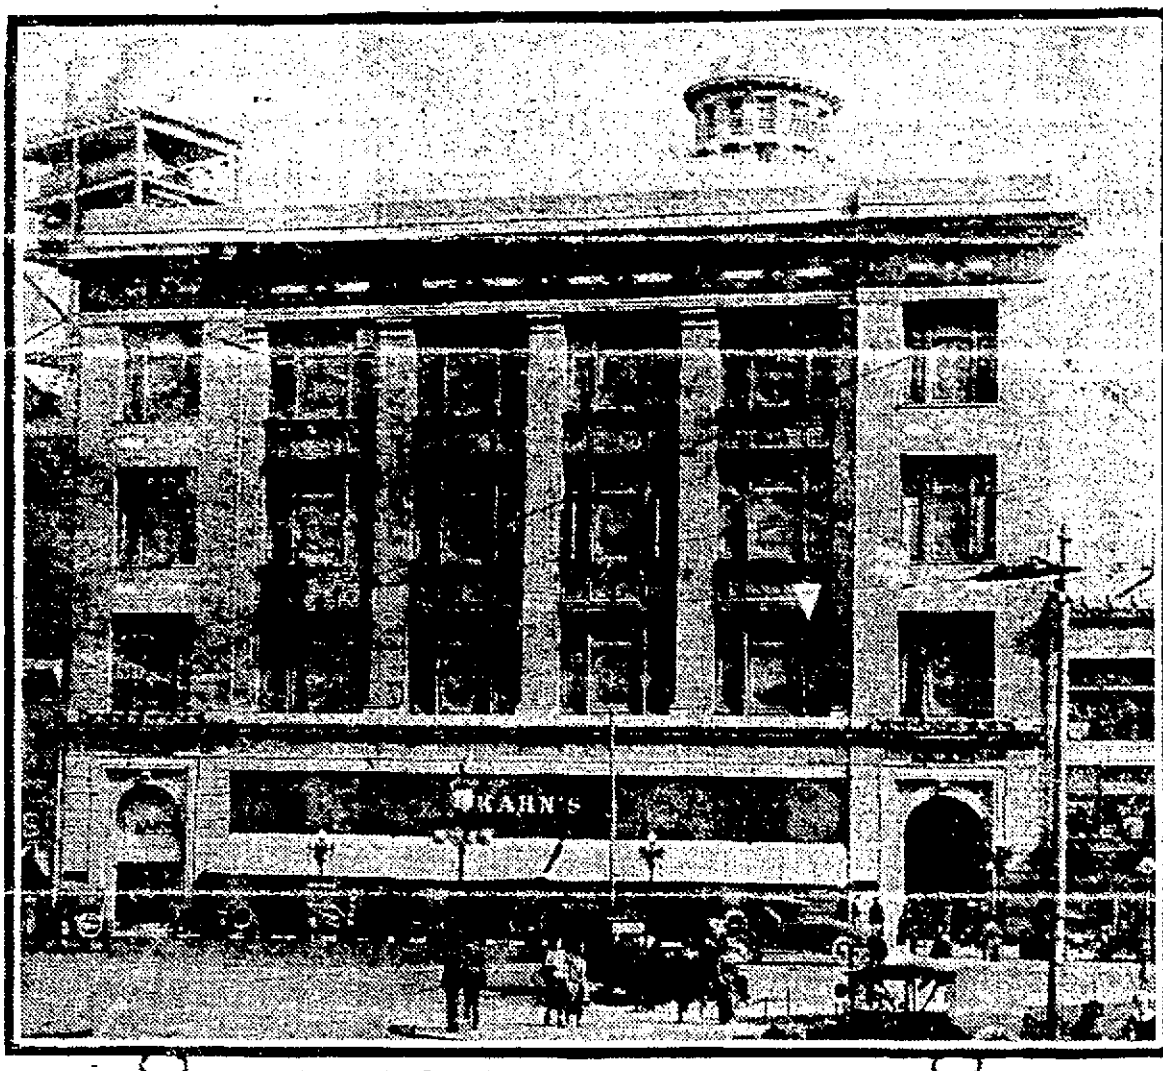

From the bulletin service The TRIBUNE will tell the news of the national presidential contest by a signal service which will reach out in the country as well as those in their homes in the cities of the Eastbay. The signal arrangements will be the most complete ever attempted on the coast.

TRIBUNE extra editions will appear on the streets with detailed account of the balloting locally and nationally, supplementing the flashes that are transferred to the bulletin boards. The Associated Press dispatches will be published exclusively in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE in Alameda county.

Three great news services will contribute to the speed and accuracy of getting the returns—the Associated Press, United Press and International News Service.

A large detail of men will gather the returns from city and county as fast as they are counted in the polling places, and bring them to The TRIBUNE office in fast automobiles. An additional bureau will be maintained at the Hall of Records, where batteries of adding machines will make the totals.

FIREMEN TO SEW ON NEW BUTTONS

In line with the policy to bring the fire department up to date a movement is afoot for a new design on the buttons of firemen's uniforms.

There have only been two designs since the city of Oakland existed. The present brass button portrays an old steam fire engine of the vintage of 1875, with the words "Oakland" and "F. D." around it. The engine, which was popular in only has a boiler and four wheels. Fire Chief Whitehead admits it is hopelessly out of date.

Before this button was adopted, according to Chief Whitehead, the department's design was a hand pump. The present button was made soon after the advent of the steam fire engine.

It is suggested that the new firemen's button shall have a snappy picture of the city hall, or perhaps an automobile truck. Anyhow, it is admitted that the old design is headed for the "junk heap."

"I don't like the old button," said Chief Whitehead. "It looks too old-fashioned."

DEATHS

KEMPNER—In Hayward, Cal., Oct. 22, 1920, Rose, dearly beloved wife of the late Mark Kempner, loving mother of Philip and Edward Kempner, and the late Martha Kahn, a native of Germany, aged 64 years.

GIVES $1000 ON 60TH BIRTHDAY

Frederick Kahn celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of his birth by making a gift to Arroyo smelter.

The money is to be placed in the reconstruction fund to develop the work which has been inaugurated in the county institution toward furthering the education of the paupers and the orphans.

The effort to assist the convalescents to enter the economic field has been largely held up through lack of funds. Specialists have agreed that providing work for the men and women is an important part of the treatment. The headwork from Arroyo smelter has become known throughout the state. The gift of the pioneer Oakland merchant is the most substantial yet received by the reconstruction department.

Acknowledgment of Kahn's birthday remembrance was made in the current issue of "The Strathmore," of which P. E. Thomas is editor.

RACE MELODIES SINGING WITH CHARM

By ROY HARRISON DANFORTH.

Mrs. Florence Cole-Talbot is a singer whose merits commend her to all folk as they must endeavor her to members of her own race. She sang last evening at the municipal auditorium theater before an audience that gave every evidence of being charmed, and had reason for being so. Her voice is a coloratura soprano of a peculiarly winsome character, a complement to a quite gracious personality. Mrs. Cole-Talbot sang under the auspices of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored People. She was assisted by K. C. Smith, a tenor whom we have heard with the Opéra club, and Miss Mabelle Clark, a pianist.

A series of three negro spirituals was the vocalist's most charming offering. They were sung with a feeling for their sentiment as well as a pride in their beauty that I liked to see. By a later series of lyrics of the character of Mendelssohn's "On the Wings of Song" and "Chaminade's 'Summer.' Mrs. Cole-Talbot's coloratura potency was tested and not found wanting. Intonation, flexibility and shuddering innocent of fault.

A keen satisfaction is to be derived from such ventures as the concert tour of Mrs. Cole-Talbot. Supported by a racial music of rare beauty and almost unlimited capacity, the negro musician has a message which must be carried on the wings of song. Mrs. Cole-Talbot, who is a native of the South, is a member of the National Association of Colored Women, and is a member of the local students in forming a western intercollegiate press association.

Christian Endeavor Current Events

"The witches invite you to their underground hall, Friday evening, October 29, on Halloween, when comes the night of the living dead. Come disguised or you'll be imprisoned for life by the Queen of the Witches" is the form of the invitation being sent to the young people of the First Christian church, Grand Avenue and Webster street, to be present at the Christian Endeavor Halloween social, Miss Annette Carlson, who is in charge, has worked out many novel ideas in color scheme, lighting effects, and decorations, which will give an uncanny atmosphere for the "revel."

Thursday night the Christian Endeavorers of the First Christian church were hosts to the District Christian Endeavorers of all Christian churches in this district. A banquet and speeches by several prominent workers were the features of the evening.

Last Sunday afternoon 29 of the young people of the University Christian church, E. made their monthly visit to the County Hospital. Tomorrow evening another live meeting is on the program, with Miss Forester as the speaker. The subject is "Lessons from Recent Events."

On Friday evening of next week, the young people of the church will hold a Halloween masquerade party in the church parlors.

The Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church of Oakland announced that the meeting of Sunday evening, October 24, is to be an unusually good one. Rev. E. M. Siskler, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be the leader for the evening. The topic is "Lessons from Recent Events."

Every one interested in Christian Endeavor should be at this meeting, and those who are not interested at present will find it a pleasure to spend the evening in this live-wire society. Light refreshments are served at 8 o'clock.

The Entertainment Committee announced that a big Halloween Social is being planned. There seems to be quite an air of mystery surrounding the whole affair. Evidently something unusually good is in store for those who are lucky enough to be able to attend.

Organization Now Largest in Northern Section of California

The membership contest of the Loyal Young People's class of the First Christian church closed last Sunday with 59 members present. The contest had been running four weeks, under the direction of three members of the class who acted as captains of the "Red," "Blue" and "White" sides. Miss Ruth Belby was captain of the winning team, the "Reds." J. J. Broderick, leader of the "White" side, and R. N. Karn, leader of the "Blues." According to the members of the class it is now the largest young people's class in northern California. In conducting the membership drive many new ideas were developed which served to stimulate widespread interest in the class and its work. A "Jazz Banquet" held at the Y. W. C. A. proved to be extremely popular. In addition to Bible lessons conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, famous in California as a young people's pastor, the class had a special feature speaker present every Sunday to aid in the drive for new members. Music was furnished by a ten-piece orchestra composed of members of the class.

A RECORD YEAR.

At a time when the country is hearing the pointed arguments regarding the necessity of an increased export business, and the complaints of a lessening of production it is well to take an account of the actual and astounding volume of manufacturing business now being done by the United States.

The value of imports of manufacturing material has been trebled during the past six years, while that of manufactures exported has been multiplied by four. Unofficial estimates, probably low, are that the value of manufactures in 1919 was fifty billion dollars, forty per cent of the manufactures of the world. The foreign commerce has increased since the war from two billion dollars to seven. For 1920 it will reach more than ten billion.

These figures are startling and contain food for serious thought. If the United States is to maintain its present industrial position in the face of the rehabilitation of European manufactures there must be a policy to encourage exports and our factories must be protected from the great amount of low priced goods which Europe will seek to unload. We have won the friendship of the awakening Chinese market, our goods are established in the Orient and to that field we can look with increasing hopes.

American industry, properly safeguarded, will hold its present place, and from the ports of the Pacific will go many of the products that will enable us to maintain the balance of trade.

JAPAN FACING CRISIS.

Despite abnormal financial conditions throughout the world it is noteworthy that the international banking situation has given but few signs of overstrain. An exception has been Japan, where the price is being paid for an orgy of excessive speculation and where many business houses and small banks have found themselves in straits. A financial crisis is upon the country.

Warning to the banks that inflation of credits could not go on at the pace set without leading to serious consequences was given little heed and in spite of a tightening money market new enterprises were floated recklessly so that with the end of March there had been more money spent for new ventures than in any entire year in Japanese history. The banks issued notes and advanced credits beyond bounds, so that this year there was four times the note issue that was outstanding in 1914. The currency in a year has been increased three times and the game of inflation was carried on until the foreign trade balance was reversed and there was a decline in national specie. Then the banks tightened their purse-strings, gambling in silk, cotton and rice experienced a slump, and the government was forced to intervene to prevent a panic.

Before Japan can recover there must be a liquidation of unsound positions and a lowering of prices to levels that will restore the balance of trade. Government funds used to steady markets constitute at best a temporary remedy.

POWER RESOURCES.

At a time when coal and petroleum problems have caused concern it has been made apparent that, eventually, the country will be compelled to supplement the use of these fuels with the development and utilization of its vast water power. Once installed the hydro-electric plant is operated at a comparatively low cost, the chief item of which is the interest on the investment. The source of energy is a constant factor.

The position of California as regards the future development of this power is one of exceptional promise. Among the individual States New York with 981,320 horse power, leads in the matter of power development and California, with 942,000 horse power, is a close second. But in the New England states more than three-fourths of the potential power has been developed while in the Far West about one-sixteenth is in use.

While there still remains a large field in the East and Central West, it is to the Pacific Coast that enterprise dependent upon water power must turn. There is now in California, from a practical operating point of view, one vast system with lines from the Oregon border to Mexico, a distance of more than 800 miles, with 75 hydro-electric and 47 steam plants, and 7,200 miles of high tension transmission lines. And the field has only been touched.

In presenting its advantages to those manufacturers who are looking to the Pacific Coast for its factory opportunities California may well emphasize its hydro electric facilities.

FRESNO REPUBLICAN FOR HARDING.

The Fresno Republican, which recently passed from Chester Rowell to Chase S. Osborn, the publisher of the Fresno Herald, has come out with an editorial endorsement of Senator Harding. Under its former publisher the Republican took no stand in the national campaign. The editorial follows:

"The process of selection this year has involved many considerations, but they all point finally to the Harding conclusion. The League of Nations, the enforcement of prohibition, business and trade policies of the government, the personal qualifications of the candidate, and perhaps most important of all, their personal policy toward the administration that now dominates Washington, spell Harding, and not Cox. Cox is for taking the League of Nations as it is handed to him by Wilson; Harding is for forming, with any material at hand, such a League of Nations as will fit to American demands and to world peace and prosperity.

"Cox stands for what has been Democratic and Harding for what has been Republican in methods of government administration, of trade promotion, of political efficiency and handling of the people's business. Republican administrators have worked for all the interests of every section of the nation. Democratic administrations have talked of helping every section and have tangled up themselves in a maze of inefficiency without helping anyone but their personal and 'deserving' friends.

"The main issue, after all, is the issue created by the Wilson administration and the position of Cox that he will continue it. The people of the United States do not want it continued. Mr. Cox has said that he is not 'Wilson,' but has done nothing to confirm that statement. He has said he would make some changes in the League of Nations covenant, but also has indicated that these changes would be as trifling as those Mr. Wilson would consent to. Mr. Cox as President, we have reason to believe, would have the political drawbacks of the Wilson administration where he did not have those of Tammany. We cannot afford to face for another four years the failure to co-ordinate, to conserve, to cooperate, to take advantage of the human forces that are available for the use of the Presidency, as Mr. Wilson has refused to make use of them. We do not want petty men in cabinet positions. We do not want big men, like Franklin Lane, put in office and then sidetracked so that they are powerless to accomplish anything. Mr. Harding, spirit of human cooperation will be one of his finest assets as chief executive of the United States.

"The Republican candidate, Mr. Harding, should be elected President. We have confidence that his administration will forcefully carry on the demands made upon it for execution of the laws, the initiation of new policies, and co-operating with the rest of the world and maintaining the rights and dignities of the American people."

Interest in the scenic wonders of Canada is expected to experience a revival with the announcement that British Columbia has abandoned its prohibition policy. Sympathy, however, will go out to Cuba, at present so much in need of any financial assistance that may cross its bars.

Until all of the world has the opportunity to read the memoirs of Count Macchi di Cellere there will be many persons who will still think that something, other than the count himself, started the war.

The consensus of opinion appears to be that in the case of "Hard-Boiled" Smith somebody was well done.

THE SPENDING ORGY.

Spurge spending has become so much a habit and a fashion of the times that the waste and extravagance of the government has attracted a great deal less attention than it deserves. We may be sure that in all other branches of activity such waste and extravagance as the government has been and is guilty of would alone be sufficient to cause the defeat of the administration responsible for it.

Now that it is recognized that economy is one of the principal needs which Americans must supply to the new era approaching, both individually and as a nation, the problem of retrenchment at Washington becomes a real issue of the campaign. The government must stop spending five billion dollars a year, and the question for voters to consider is which party would be most likely to apply the pruning knife. The Democrats who are responsible for that budget of the Republicans who must seek future support and approval upon a record of efficiency, economy and achievement?

The present administration will soon have been in power eight years. It is fair to say its history, as regards the evils of extravagance and of the overloading of the administrative personnel with party supporters, is too likely to be the history of any administration too long continued in office. And there was the war, of course. But the war has been over two years. We were one of the victors. We had no indemnity to pay, except to profiteers, and yet war taxes are undistributed and war expenditure unchecked. The habit was too strong upon the administration. It became so accustomed to living beyond its income that, like individuals who do the same thing, it came to believe it couldn't live within it. It didn't try.

When Congress was wrestling with rent profiteering in Washington last spring it was seriously proposed to appropriate a lump sum to provide railroad tickets and a bonus for one hundred thousand departmental employees and send them home. But the government payroll is merely the fancy pastry counter of the administration. Just a light lunch. But it indicates what the meat and potato course must be.

No undue claims need be made for the frugal instincts of the Republican party. But at least it is a party that has been out of power eight years. It has every incentive to undo what is evil in the work of the Democrats and to seek and deserve a reputation for economical administration in contrast to what has gone before. Among the reasons why there should be no change of party management at Washington this certainly is not the least.—Kansas City Star.

NOTES and COMMENT

According to an account, baseball player Magart has an oblique vision. He is reported as seeing nothing wrong in taking money from Vernon players to help that club win the pennant himself being a member of a contesting club, but "gets as sore as a goat" when accused of doing business with gamblers. A striking instance of a distinction without a difference.

Those who train hunting dogs in Lake Merritt, thereby giving admittance to Oakland's picturesque exhibit of ducks who were enjoying sanctuary here are conspicuously shy of a decent regard for the fitness of things, and a loud cry for their removal is not a great protesting cry will be raised.

Luxuriant Republicans of New Jersey are predicting that the State will give 150,000 to Harding and Coolidge. It gave Tut $4,000 in 1915, and Hughes $9,000 in 1919, in either of which campaigns was the situation as serious for Democrats as it is now. The job in the situation of Republicans is that New Jersey is President Wilson's home State.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

The beautiful float provided by Selby Lodge Knights of Pythias for the big parade was a handsome affair and represented a court scene with Mrs. Charles Stehle as queen, and officers, eight senators, two attendants, appellate, master-at-arms and herald on horseback. Four white horses drew the float, but the animals became unmanageable before the parade began and nearly ran off the grade on Lerine avenue, so it was decided to abandon the idea of being in the parade. It was unfortunate, indeed, for the lodge had spent much money on the float and it was one of the prettiest to be seen.—Crocker Signal.

Vast Opportunity For Developmental Enterprises When a Stable Government Is Established—Pre-War Foreign Trade More Than One-Third That of the United States.
By DR. FRANK M. SURFACE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Of the war showed exports valued at about $750,000,000 per year and imports equal to more than $600,000,000. The total value of imports and exports was roughly $1,350,000,000 compared with $3,250,000,000 for the trade of the United States in the same years. More than half the total exports were articles of food, chiefly cereals, eggs and meat. The value of imports of materials amounted to nearly $300,000,000. The most important were timber and wood, flax, petroleum and furs.

More than half of the pre-war trade was carried on with Germany, although a considerable portion went to England. In 1913 the imports into Russia from the United States were valued at about $15,000,000 and the exports from Russia to the United States at $7,000,000.

Who will get the large share of Russia's valuable foreign trade when that country is again under a stable government? This problem is the guiding star of more than one European government in their present relations with that country. (Copyright, 1920, by Washington Herald.)

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

Facts About Cancer: Radium and Knife Only Weapons
By Dr. LEONAR K. HURSHBERG
A. B., A. M. D.
(Johns Hopkins University.)

In the unprofessional mind of many, there exists a confusion about the words cancer, tumor, sarcoma, swelling, enlarged gland, growths and malignant.

In medical parlance any sort of swelling is a tumor. The word is applied to a swollen jaw, a bulged artery, a thickened area of skin or any projected area of tissue.

A cancer is a swelling or tumor which is not rigid around and sharply fronted throughout. It eats, creeps and sends outwards and skirmishes in all directions—growing, swimming, floating, sailing forth, as microscopically small sons and daughters of itself to conquer some hidden spot far off, in the liver, stomach, intestines or elsewhere.

Any constantly tormented, irritated, rubbed or ill-fitting tumor, however small and inconspicuous harmless and painless, is apt to become a cancer. This is especially true of such swellings in the mouth, stomach, intestines and internal feminine structures.

If you wait until a cancer pains or attracts your attention, it is then too late to save you from its malignancy.

If you wait for some "sure cancer cure," some "inherited-family secret," patent medicine, herbs, salve or other treatment, the week-or-more delay may cost you your life.

A sarcoma is a cancer. It is a malignant growth, which differs only in name and microscopic appearance. All cancers—carcinoma—and sarcomas are malignant. That is to say, if they're not diagnosed, discovered and brought to book at once when first seen as a tiny swelling, they may result fatally.

Any one over 40 who trifles with any sort of a tumor, who trusts the "cancer-healing" of healers, doctors, herbs, salves or any other non-surgical method, or of small quantities of radium, leans on a broken reed.

The exact origin of cancer is not known. Chicken cancers and tree cancers have been proved to be due to a living virus, but this is not yet confirmed for human cancers. You do well to act on it as true for you, however.

When mixed germs, such as the influenza bacillus, the hemolytic streptococcus and the pneumococcus hammer in concert on the anvil of health you may look for death.

Similarly, if plates or crown or false teeth keep up a rubbing and scraping and grinding which continues to irritate the gums or the tongue with the mixed germs of the mouth and stomach beware! Any swelling or growth ought to be eradicated at once.

These things are always of consequence. Don't disregard them and their effects on your health. They are always of consequence. Never neglect them. Taken in time they may be cured and life saved.

Radium combined with the knife is the only present way to prevent and eliminate real cancers.

"The Spirit Juggler"—Famous Medium Makes Amazing Revelations of Fraud

Miss Molly Wynter, the world-famous medium, whose seances in Europe puzzled the scientific world, now confesses that she was a fraud. The OAKLAND TRIBUNE, beginning next Tuesday, will present Miss Wynter's own story, one of the most amazing of a decade, in which she will explain how she produced ghosts and spirits to order and convinced men of learning that she could make the dead speak.

Miss Wynter is not a scoffer at spiritualism, but reveals the hitherto secret tricks of ghost producing, table tilting, spirit music and many other so-called phenomena. She describes how she deceived Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the superintendent of Scotland Yard, and a group of scientists and journalists. Without disputing that there may be legitimate messages from the dead she tells how she faked such messages. Watch The OAKLAND TRIBUNE Tuesday.

AMENDMENT 12 RECOMMENDED BY MAYOR DAVIE

Legislation for Benefit of U. of C. Is Deemed As Worthy.

WOULD PROVIDE INCOME

Mayor Davie today, in a statement, came out in favor of Amendment 12, affecting the University of California. His statement follows: Amendment No. 12 on the November ballot provides for the establishment of an additional tax of one and two-tenths mills on each dollar of assessed property value in California. The money raised from this tax will be used for the maintenance of the State University, replacing the present method of financing that institution through legislative appropriation. The university has grown very rapidly the past few years, and this growth has outstripped the appropriations from the Legislature and overtaxed the present class room, dormitory and other facilities. In order to provide a constant source of income which will be adequate for the needs of the university this Amendment No. 12 has been placed upon the ballot.

Without the adoption of some method of providing the required funds, the university will be forced to limit the number of students, or establish a tuition fee. Either of these alternatives will work an injustice on young people of small financial means, who will be hampered in receiving an education. This would not be just, as the rich man's son is able to pay tuition or go to another school in the East, while young people of small means are not in such a fortunate position. Educational advantages in State universities should be equal for rich and poor alike, but unless adequate funds are provided, inequalities are inevitable.

The proposed tax will provide for the university a source of income which will increase with the increase in assessed value of property in the State. The amount of money which it will raise, enough to maintain the university adequately and provide for its expansion, will hardly be felt by the people throughout the State. A vote for Amendment 12 on the November ballot will provide for the continuance of equal educational advantages for our young people, and deserves the support of the people.

EDUCATORS TO MEET
School principals and other school officials have been notified to be present at Chabot hall at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon for a general meeting to discuss Amendment 12.

Temple Sinai Members Honor Abraham Jonas at Services

The work of Abraham Jonas, business man of the city, as a leader in the Temple Sinai Congregation, was given recognition and honor at a special service in the Temple Sinai, Twenty-eighth and Webster streets, last night, at which a bronze bas-relief of the worker was dedicated. Jonas was president of the congregation from 1885 to 1888 and again served a ten-year term from 1908 to 1918. On his resignation in 1918 Superior Judge-elect George Samuels was chosen to the presidency of the congregation, the post which he now holds.

The special service last night was largely attended by community leaders of the Jewish faith. TRIBUTE IS PAID Opening with an organ prelude, Guilman's "Pastorale," played by Margaret Bradley Elliot, the service included the regular Sabbath evening service, supplemented by addresses paying tribute to the work of Jonas, delivered by Harold Haas, George Samuels and Irving Kahn, and a response from the honored congregation's ex-president, Dr. Martin Meyer, who spoke on "The Congregation and the Community," and Rachel Hirschberg, who delivered the "Greetings From the Religious School."

The special musical program began as follows: Boruch Hu—"Praise Ye the Lord" (H. Zolner); Shema—"Hear, O Israel" (H. Zolner); Mi-cho-mo-cho—"Who is Like unto Thee" (Macfarlane).

Vesphomer—"And the Children of Israel Shall Keep the Sabbath" (Sparger-Divorcan). SILENT DEVOTION These numbers were followed by silent devotion of C. Attenhofer and a scriptural reading (Joshua 1:1-10) by Rabbi Harvey B. Franklin.

Harold Haas was the first speaker, his subject being "Greetings From the Alumni." He was followed by President Samuels.

Judge Samuels, who has been a life-long friend of Jonas, reviewed his work in the congregation and in social work here. He told how the retired president came to Oakland and how he had been identified with the interests of the community and of the faith.

Particular stress was laid on the recently completed work of improving the additional three-acre plot of the Jewish people in Mountain View cemetery, which was undertaken last year. This work, said Judge Samuels, was carried out almost entirely through the single-handed efforts of Abraham Jonas.

IN INTEREST OF CHURCH Judge Samuels also called attention to the fact that it was during Jonas' term as president of the First Hebrew Congregation that the present temple on the Webster street hill was built in 1913.

"In these years of his service as president of the congregation," said Judge Samuels, "he neglected his

UNION VETERANS WILL BURY HERO KILLED BY AUTO

John H. Allen, Struck Down in Berkeley to Be Given Military Funeral.

OBSEQUIES ON MONDAY

BERKELEY, Oct. 23.—Members of Lookout Mountain Post, G. A. R., will conduct the funeral Monday of John H. Allen, 73-year-old veteran of the Civil war, who was killed Thursday night, when struck by an automobile driven by Miss Amelia Quilada, 1749 Cedar street.

Allen resided at 1432 Grant street, making his home in Berkeley for the past thirteen years. He formerly resided in San Francisco, where he was a member of the fire department. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Allen. An only son, Frank Allen, died several years ago.

Allen is declared to have been passing the street diagonally at the time of the accident. Witnesses related Miss Quilada of blame and she was not held at police station. At the time of the accident Miss Quilada, who is 23 years old, was driving the car of Ramon De Negri, Mexican consul-general, at San Francisco.

ALL SEATS TAKEN The program consisted with musical numbers as follows: "May the Words," "Adoration" and "Let Us Adore the Ever Living God," all of Spieker, Odor Olom, Lymna and the congregation.

Every seat in the temple was taken and a number of persons stood through the services. It is estimated that 800 persons were present.

The bas-relief of Jonas will be mounted in the vestibule of the temple. It is the work of Ralph Steele, an artist, who was prominently identified with some of the art work at the Panama-Pacific exposition of 1915.

May Fails to See Robber in Durney

August May, president of the Bank of Alameda County of Alvarado and who was wounded by one of four robbers who held up the bank and escaped with more than $20,000 recently, today declared positively that Paul Durney, arrested on suspicion of having been implicated in the affair, is not one of the men who entered the bank. Durney was taken to the Merritt hospital, where May has been since the shooting. May said that he was sure that Durney was not one of the men who entered the bank.

QUARANTEED WITH GIRL The police of his engagement to May. They said that there had been a quarrel some time ago over which Fletcher had brooded and that a week ago he tore up all of the girl's pictures and letters and threw them away.

Efforts to locate her are being made in order to learn if she was the woman companion of Fletcher at the time of his death. A woman's footprints in the beach sand over which Fletcher had walked and signs of a terrific struggle indicate that Fletcher was not alone.

The woman's footprints lead to the surf but do not return. A theory is that Fletcher carried her, half carried and half dragged the body to the surf and then returned and committed suicide.

Fletcher was last seen alive by his companions on Monday afternoon. Short met him then in a downtown saloon, and at that time when Fletcher left he said he was going to keep an appointment with a woman.

NURSE RUSSELL FIGHTS AGAINST POISON DEATH

Victim of Botulism Is Making Hard Struggle Against Malady.

HOPE HELD BY FRIENDS

Fear that Miss Nellie Russell, a nurse, one of the victims of botulism poisoning at St. Anthony's Hospital, may succumb to the ravages of the disease despite the heroic measures taken to save her life, was expressed by attendants early today at the institution.

From a rally of two days' duration, in which her chances for recovery seemed more than even, her condition last night turned for the worse, it is declared.

Miss Russell is not quite as well this morning, said an attendant in charge. "However, we trust that an improvement will be shown during the day. We have by no means given up hope."

AT GATES OF DEATH The victim, who virtually stood at the gates of death as the result of food poisoning, which took the lives of the Edith Strong, Joseph Freitas and Miss Anna Remus, was proclaimed for the time at least by the quick action of a powerful new serum in the hands of Dr. J. Coolidge Thompson.

Although a new type of toxin, and its exact effects were unknown, the first symptoms after the primary injection seemed favorable. The physician expressed the belief that Miss Russell would recover. Similar steps were taken to save the life of Steve Wendt, who, less sorely stricken by the epidemic, was reported on the way to recovery today.

SECOND AUTOPSY BEGUN First steps in the second autopsy, ordered taken over the man in Freitas by the government, were begun today in San Francisco under the direction of Dr. Graustein Y. Turk.

Federal officials were disatisfied with the report made by local physicians, following the autopsy conducted over the remains of Dr. Strong, it is said, and a second investigation was ordered.

Two weeks, or more, will be necessary before the exact cause of botulism can be established, Dr. Turk declared.

Disciples of Christ Name New President

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—The Rev. George W. Miller of Washington, D. C., today was chosen president of the next year's convention of the Disciples of Christ in session here. As convention president-elect, Rev. Miller will be ranking official of the denomination during the next year.

an friend, Thornton Beach life-guard reported having seen Fletcher walking along the beach with a woman Tuesday afternoon.

That Fletcher may have been making efforts to find "May" is indicated in a letter found among his effects from a street car conductor, J. W. Nye, of Thurman, California, saying that a woman who rode on Nye's car "looked like May."

Call a Nurse-Cop If You Have Mishap, Police Advise

"Call a cop! I sprained my ankle." There's the solution. No need to call a doctor now, or have someone rush you to the receiving hospital. Just a simple little cry for study which is being taken up extensively by the city's sturdy guardians who patrol the residential districts.

Every Thursday finds a big class of them met in the municipal auditorium, where they are competing for the federal certificates in first aid work.

Dr. Eugene May, head of the local chapter, American Red Cross service, is instructor for the men, who number for the most part the a nurse-cop when you're hurt and everything will be attended to. Even an affair of the heart, fainting spells and other such trifles can be easily attended to now.

If the baby has colic, or swallows a button, just run to the door and shout to a policeman, and he'll double-time right to your very door, unbuckling his first aid kit enroute.

Everything in the way of first aid is to be made simply simple. Cops are daily learning to wind bandages and are studying the ten rules for colic cure, the latter newest corners in the police force. The course in first aid work is similar to that which is taught in the schools. It has the sanction of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety P. F. Morse.

RUBINI TO GIVE ANOTHER TEST OF HIS POWERS

Oakland will have further evidence of the telepathic powers of Eugene de Rubini, who recently performed a public test arranged by The TRIBUNE, tomorrow morning at 11. At a special performance at the Oakland T. & D. theater, de Rubini again will prove his power to communicate with the dead.

de Rubini, who is a native of Italy, and that he is able to communicate with the dead through his own will power and through his sensitiveness is able to react upon the mental commands of an outside will power, executing such tasks as this outside power directs him.

In a series of scientific laboratory tests recently conducted by Rev. Roland, professor of psychology at the Santa Clara university, before the whole faculty, one particularly difficult and complicated test was presented. No one but Professor Roland knew what was to be done. Taking his position as mental conductor a few pages behind de Rubini, he mentally commanded him to find a certain small volume of poems which had been previously hidden in a drawer of a desk in the university library, open it at a certain page and point out one of the professor's favorite lines. The professor concentrated and de Rubini again—went to the library, to the desk, opened the drawer, picked out the hidden book of verse, furnished a bit over the pages, finally stopped at the determined page and pointed out the correct lines.

SHE PAID TAXES AND WANTED A CULVERT, TOO

Seeing her neighbors enjoying nice new culverts, placed on their side of the street by the street department, a feminine taxpayer appeared before Superintendent of Streets George Maltis this morning and demanded that a culvert be also laid in front of her property.

"But," protested Maltis, "there's no drainage on your side of the street."

"I don't care about that," she retorted. "I'm a taxpayer and I've just as much right to a culvert as these other people."

"But there's no overflow on your side of the street," argued Maltis. "That's all right, but I'm just as much entitled to improvements as any one else. I'm just as much of a taxpayer as they are."

Maltis finally murmured something about "laying the matter before the commission," and went home humbly.

LAW MAKER IS ARRESTED AS AUTO SPEEDER

Former Legislator Says That Arresting Officer Raised His Speed Rate.

SO THEY ALL SAY, REPLY

ALBANY, Oct. 23.—Laws are made for lawmakers as well as any body else, so Henry D. Byrne, of San Francisco, former member of the legislature, has discovered.

Byrne was arrested by Marshall John Glavinovich and charged with traveling thirty-seven and a half miles an hour on San Pablo avenue.

"But I was only going twenty," expostulated Byrne. "Why, I helped to make those speed laws."

"That's what they all say," rejoined the officer. "Tell it to the judge." Byrne is vice-president of the Pacific Coast Rubber and Supply company, with offices at 514 Mission street, San Francisco.

Will Rogers' Latest Photoplay Adds to His List of Triumphs

WILL ROGERS, creator of "Jubilo," whose "Honest Hutch" is said to eclipse it. He comes to the American tomorrow.

New Play Shows What Fifty Thousand Dollars Can Do Toward Changing a Fellow's Nature.

Or, rather—"Honest Hutch"—that's who Rogers will be existing as at the time—will find the money "Hutch" is a worthless enough sort of fellow—until he stumbles on an old tin box containing the money—and then his trials and tribulations—and incidentally his regeneration—begin.

Will Rogers doesn't act the part—he lives it. It is declared to eclipse even his famous "Jubilo" as a piece of the best of the Rogers style. ## $1 a Word

We will pay $1 a word for the best letter or short advertisement telling about American Stamps. Your ad should tell why it pays to trade at stores giving the stamps, or your letter should tell why your grocer does not give the Red Stamps; also who your grocer is. We do not furnish blank forms for the ad or letter. Just use blank paper and write anywhere from seven words to seven lines. Every body may enter this contest and every one who tries will be given some extra American Red Stamps or some theatre passes.
